The IDD Council of Tarrant County is proud to partner with Fort Worth ISD to host "MAKING CONNECTIONS" CENTRAL TARRANT DISABILITY RESOURCE FAIR

The IDD Council’s Making Connections Disability Resource Fairs bring together the disability resources in our community to one, easily accessed location for families and caregivers to collect information and learn about benefits and services each provide. Making Connections Disability Resource Fairs are held each year in various locations throughout Tarrant County.

BREAKOUT SESSIONS

10:00 - 10:45 a.m.

Guardianship: Rush to the Courthouse or Last Resort? (Most useful for families with children over 14)

An overview of the laws applicable to guardianship in Texas, the evidence and standard of proof needed to obtain guardianship and the many alternatives to guardianship. By Judge Brooke Allen, Tarrant County Probate 2 Court.

Life Planning Nuts and Bolts

Caregivers have many concerns and responsibilities in the care for their loved one. How does one plan for their finances, daily physical care, emotional support, medical and education needs, housing and transportation needs, or attendants for legal matters? Learn the many steps in preparing for your child's future. By TJ Kroehle, Texas Life Planning 11:15 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.

Understanding the ABLE Account: Saving for Your Child's Future

An ABLE Account is a tax-advantaged savings account to help individuals with disabilities save money. Learn how Texans with disabilities can save and utilize an ABLE account for disability-related expenses without losing eligibility under SSI, SSDI, Medicaid and other means-tested public benefits. By Heidi Angel, Kelly Hart

Accessing Services through My Health My Resources (MHMR)

As the State's Local IDD Authority (LIDDA), MHMR is the first point of contact for families looking for services. Learn about Texas' interest lists, options and benefits, and the criteria for services. By My Health My Resources of Tarrant County.

Basic Behavioral Management Techniques

Many families with children with disabilities encounter behavior concerns in the home and community, such as not following directions and aggression. Parents and caregivers will obtain information and the understanding of why children engage in behaviors of concern and how to respond to these behaviors. Problem solving examples and strategies that can be implemented in the home will be discussed. By Megan Thompson, Keller ISD.

The FWISD Special Education PTA was formed in 2018 by a group of parents and teachers wanting to make sure that children receiving Special Education services have the best experience possible. The SEPTA is unique in that it is the first district-wide PTA at FWISD. Our bylaws were approved by the Texas PTA on June 15, 2018. We share the mission of PTA to make every child's potential a reality by engaging and empowering families and communities to advocate for ALL children. FWISD is driven by their mission to prepare ALL students for success in college, career, and community leadership. Our challenge is to assure that pursuit of that mission truly includes ALL students. Our organization's mission has grown into a Vision centered around five core areas: Safety & Security, Accessibility & Mobility, Education, Inclusion, Advocacy. This vision will guide our work as we collaborate with the schools and community to improve the outcomes for our children. We hope you will join us as we make this organization and FWISD the best it can be.
